Global Missions, Wherever You Are

As you read through the following posts at FaithPassedDown.com, pray and consider God's leading for you and the young people in your life.

Then come back circle one or two items in the list below that you'd like to commit to in the weeks ahead (or at least begin praying about and moving toward, in the case of some of the more time-consuming steps).

Complete this sentence by circling 1-2 items below: Together with my children/teenagers, we will...

- Pray for the whole world
- Make an Operation Christmas Child box
- Sponsor a Child
- Write Letters to Our Sponsored Child
- Give Fair Trade Gifts
- Donate to an Overseas Missionary
- Bless and Encourage a Missionary
- Support Refugees
- Start a Backyard Bible Club
- Befriend an International Student
- Serve in Global Missions as an Adult Mentor
- Talk about and Help Poverty
- Bless Pregnant Mamas and New Babies Everywhere
- Support the Persecuted Church
- Do Short-term Missions as a Family
- Send My Teenager on a Short-Term Mission Trip
- Live Overseas as a Missionary

Answer: As you consider Global Missions with Kids, your answers on the previous pages of this worksheet, and all that God is speaking to you, how do you want to take action in the next 30 days?

Record 1-3 action steps here and plan how you'll implement them.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Accountability

If you're anything like me, good intentions today may be forgotten by tomorrow! So mark your calendar for four weeks from now, and revisit your action steps at that time.

Also, please email me (Kelly@FaithPassedDown.com) or leave a comment on the blog with your action steps! I'd love to pray for you and check in with you via email in a few weeks to see how things are going.

Thanks for participating in 31 Days of Global Missions with Kids! - Kelly
